

Prayers for week of June 7, 2020 to June 13, 2020

Sunday: Thank you Dear Lord, for calling me to be your disciple and including me in your Great Commission. May I be faithful and obedient to your command. I know I can do what you ask with the help of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Monday: Heavenly Father, how wonderful it is that you hear me when I call out to you and I can trust you to give me what I need. I can come to you with my burdens and you will be there to help me through them. You indeed are a loving Father. Amen.

Tuesday: Thank you, Blessed Jesus. I know you care for me. I know you will be with me always even in the trials of life I can count on you. You will always be near, and I can count on you to help me do your will. You will bring good even out of my failures. Praise be your holy Name. Amen.

Wednesday: Dear God, let me not be so worried about making other people happy that I forget to please you. Lord guide me today in doing the things you have planned for me and not just the things I have planned. Thank you for being with me always. Amen.

Thursday: Dear Lord, it seems to be in style today to say whatever comes into one's mind. But that often is not helpful and even is not true. Jesus help your followers to stay focused on speaking your truths. Help our words to be different than the world's. Amen.

Friday: Remind me Jesus not to just think before I speak but rather to pray before I speak. Let every sentence I say today come from your Holy Spirit within me. Instruct me to know your ways and to teach others I meet. Amen.

Saturday: Dear Father, this morning I will drench myself in your Word, and come out smiling. Let me spread the joy I find in my heart to all those around me. Give me words of praise, wisdom and encouragement to be shared with all those who need to hear them and give you the glory you deserve. Amen.
